

RESOURCES FOR EDUCATORS

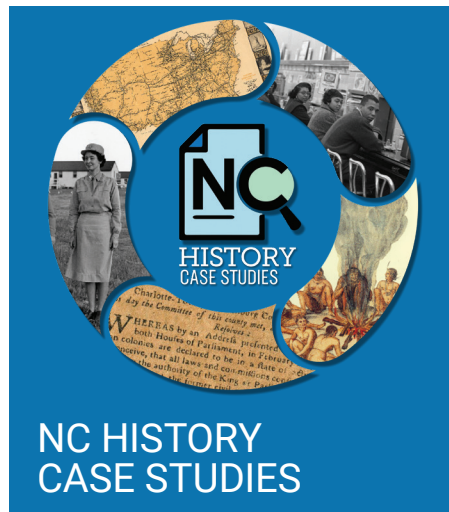

- Unique experiences for K-12 students and teachers designed by local educators.
- Engage with Charlotte and regional history that connects to curriculum and standards.

FIELD TRIPS

Immerse your students in Charlotte's rich history with our field trips. Our Charlotte: Moving Forward, Looking Back exhibition introduces students to the city's history through stories, artifacts, and interactives. Students can also take a deeper dive with a guided walking tour of Charlotte's historic Brooklyn neighborhood. A virtual Charlotte history tour is also available by request.

Find out more online.

NC HISTORY CASE STUDIES

These online inquiry-based resources were developed for students to foster historical thinking skills and grow their North Carolina history knowledge. The case studies span the state's history from the time of its earliest inhabitants to the Cold War and Civil Rights eras, and each has a corresponding Teaching Guide.

Find out more online.

EDUCATOR WORKSHOPS

Our free standards-based professional development workshops are ideal for Social Studies and ELA teachers who want to increase student engagement, encourage critical thinking skills, and connect with other educators. All workshops are created and led by local teachers.

Find out more online.

